

Enterprising Women Conference & Awards 2008

Friday 21st November – Abington Hall, Cambridge

Join us on Friday 21 November – a great opportunity to learn, share, build relationships and have fun at our conference!

The Enterprising Women conference is open to business women across the country, offering up to date and practical advice, along with a good dose of inspiration delivered by world class entrepreneurs. It is the focal point of the year for our community, so don't miss out!

Book online now:

Comprising two exceptional keynote speakers, a networking lunch and reception, and a choice of eight workshop sessions, it's the place to make that all important business connection and take home the motivation you need to grow your company.

It will also be the stage for our first ever awards. These will be presented to winners at the end of the day, followed by a champagne reception to celebrate the achievements of the East of England's top Enterprising Women.

Keynote speakers

Karen Darby – Serial entrepreneur and founder of Simply Switch

Karen has been a leading figure in the call centre industry for over 25 years, and founded SimplySwitch, the UK's leading telephone and web based price comparison service. In August 2006 Karen sold SimplySwitch to DMGT (Daily Mail & General Trust) for £22m. Karen is frequently quoted in the personal finance, business and marketing press and is a regular guest on Sky News and BBC Radio 5 Live.

Emma Jones – Founder of Enterprise Nation, the home business company

Enterprise Nation is the UK's largest website for people starting and growing a business from home, with a monthly readership of more than 40,000 people. Emma is author of 'Spare Room Start Up'; a Waterstones business book of the month and Amazon best-seller.
